Alice married Lee Vice, and they had the following children: Lillian, Robert, Charlie, Viola, Victoria M., Lum, May and Levada.

After their children were grown, Alice and Lee moved to either Louisiana or Texas, where they lived for the rest of their lives.

Frank came back to visit his son and daughter-in-law, Charles and Christi Perry, in 1926 and stayed for a year. Jessie L., youngest daughter of Charles and Christi, remembers her grandfather Frank well. He was a short, stocky man, in good physical condition, and could jump up and click his heels together twice before hitting the ground. Jessie followed him everywhere and went fishing with him. She remembers one night, while he was cleaning fish they had caught, a cat stole the fish as fast as he cleaned them. This caused Frank to get very angry.

Frank and his grandson, Walter, had to climb up on the roof many times because sparks from the old fireplace would set the shingles on fire. They carried buckets of water with them to put the fire out.

After the year long visit, Frank returned to Florida and was never seen or heard from again.

Elizabeth died about 1905-1910 and is buried in the old Zion Methodist Cemetery, on Dutch Bayou in Escatawpa, MS.

PETERSON, HILJA MARIE LEHTONEN

F409

My mother, Hilja Maria Lehtonen, was born in Loimaa, Finland in 1889 and lived there until she was ten years old with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lehtonen and older sister, Fanny. Grandpa Lehtonen had heard of the big opportunities in America, so he left his wife and children to seek his fortune here. His ship docked near Neguane, MI and he, for a while, worked in the coal mines near there and, later, had a small store, trying to make enough to send for Grandma and Mama and Aunt Fanny.

An incident I remember my Mama telling me was: It was nearing Christmas and a salesman came in Grandpa's store and told him he was sailing back to Finland in a few days. Now he was a perfect stranger to Grandpa, but he asked the salesman if he was going anywhere near Loimaa and he said why yes he was. So Grandpa asked him would he take a beautiful gold necklace with a ruby pendant to his wife for Christmas. And of all things, the salesman delivered the package to Grandma and I have this necklace now, left to me by Grandma (could that happen today?).

This in the late 1800s, Grandpa was born in 1857 and Grandma in 1851. I'm not sure just when Grandpa sent for Grandma and the girls, but they lived in Michigan for several years before coming South. Grandpa read some ads in the Michigan newspapers about the wonderful country down South and how you could grow crops year around. So, I understand that he homesteaded property in Pecan, MS and they left Michigan and took a train and landed at the railroad station near Pecan, which is a small Finnish community not far from Kreole. There was nothing in sight but trees, weeds and broom sage, but the station master took them to their new land by horse and buggy and, with the help of a few neighbors, Grandpa started building their home. I remember it well. The kitchen was in the back yard with a covered walkway to the house, also an out house way back. In those days - maybe a custom of Finland - you didn't cook where you lived and slept. Grandpa's garden flourished and he brought his vegetables in the horse and wagon to Pascagoula to be sold.

Later, as young ladies, my Mama and Aunt Fanny went to work in Pascagoula at Hughes Mercantile store. They had millinery and dress goods, but also farm tools and other items like a department store. This is where my mother met Captain Josiah Christian Peterson and they were married Oct. 14, 1909. And Aunt Fanny met Herman H. Colle, whom she wed June 15, 1908. Both couples married in the Lutheran Church in Scranton.

After my father's tragic death at sea (his ship's being lost in the storm of August 1915), my mother, Hilja, remarried, about eight years later, to W.R. DeForrest. He was an artist, an inventor and an interior decorator originally from Ohio. Mama took in roomers and boarders to make a living. She was also a seamstress. DeForrest had a room in our home and, after about a year, he and mama were married in the Lutheran Church in New Orleans. My brother, then eight years old, and I went on their honeymoon with them. We had a suite of rooms in the Monteleon Hotel and we thought that was grand. It was my job to see that brother was dressed and ready to go out for meals, but I couldn't keep him out of the bath tub. It had so many shiny knobs and faucets.

Everything was lovely for a while. DeForrest was an eccentric artist, stern and ruled us with an iron hand. They had five children over the years: Hilja, the first baby was named after mama; Helen; Billy; Jack; and Peggy.

Times got hard. It was before and during the depression. DeForrest did not have much work, but he was working on his invention, a perpetual motion machine, so mama went to work in a small lunch room across from Pascagoula High School. Remember, this was before cafeterias were in the schools. She could take the small children with her and the other ones were in school. Boy, she made the best hamburgers! It was a great success, the lunch room was booming.

Then, tragedy struck again. Our beautiful home, built by my father, J.C. Peterson, caught fire one night and burned the whole upstairs (including the invention, which was ruined) and what the fire didn't ruin, the water did. Everyone got out safely though. I was fifteen years old at that time, but the only thing I was upset about was all my valentines from years back were burned.

After the fire, everything seemed to go wrong. My step father was disgusted and wanted to leave to find work elsewhere. This was approximately in 1926. Then in 1933, after our home was rebuilt, there was a second fire and mama gave up and moved to North Pascagoula St. DeForrest did eventually leave, never to return.

When the Woolen Mill came to Jackson County in 1937, mama found work there. She was a conscientious worker, stayed for years and was named Mother of the Year in 1940.

She continued to raise her children alone, drawing upon her Finnish stamina and her religious faith, and lived to see all her children happily married.

Sorrowfully, we lost her following surgery in 1956, but she will live on in our loving memories forever.

HISTORY OF PERQUIMANS COUNTY

PERRY

Phillip Perry emigrated to Va, and settled in Isle of Wight Co, where he acquired large land holdings. He was uncle of Micajah Perry, London Merchant; who died 1721. The will of Phillip Perry was p in Isle of Wight Co Va, Oct 9, 1669, at which time he gave his age as 70 years. His will names sons: Phillip, & John, "under age" wife Grace. John son of Phillip Perry, conveyed a place called "Whitemarsh" to Col Joseph Bridger, 1673 (Isle of Wight Records). John Perry of "Upper pish of Nausemun Co Vir" for 5000 lbs of Tob, pd by Col Nathaniel Bacon, sold 70a in Lower pish of Isle of Wight Co" May 26, 1675. June 7, 1675, Elizabeth Perry acknowledged her dower to sd land. Phillip Perry had other sons, than Phillip, & John. These sons: James, Jacob, & Joseph, all moved to N. C. James to Chowan, where he made a deed to his brother John Perry of Nansemond Co Va, with consent of wife Patience, land on "Middle Swamp." As Middle Swamp is in what is now Gates Co, then a part of Chowan, it seems certain that this conveyance was in the last named county. Jacob Perry witnessed this deed. The will of Timothy Clare is authority for the fact that said Jacob Perry, m Hepzibath dau of said Clare (step-daughter) and it is thought, but not proven that she was a dau of his 2d wife Elizabeth—(maiden name unknown). All of the children of Timothy Clare are placed without doubt, but Hepzibeth, and she is not named in the last clause of his will. His children were by the first wife Mary Bundy, & the last one Hannah, by Hannah n<sup>ce</sup> Larance (widow of Israel Snelling). Therefore it seems evident that Hepzibeth Perry was not his blood child.

Among emigrants to Va in "Bonaventure" Jan 1634, are found Thomas Perry, age 34, Dorothy Perry age 36, Ben Perry age 4. (Hotten.)

Benjamin Perry Sr, died Mch 11, 1788. Hannah Perry, widow of Benjamin, died Nov —, 1791.

Benjamin Perry Jr (s of Benjamin, & Susan) died Jan 10, 1784. The elder Benjamin Perry was a brother of Micajah, wealthy commission merchant of London. Both Benjamin and Phillip's descendants migrated to Perq Co, at quite an early date. The Tithe, and Tax List in this county show where they lived, and in some cases how much land they owned. Micajah Lowe in his will, 1703, mentions his uncle Micajah Perry of London, who in his will 1721 names "sister Elizabeth Evens," dau Sarah Perry, with her two sons (not named). The Elizabeth Evens here named may have been, wife of Richard Evens of Perq, who died 1693, naming wife Elizabeth.

Judith, & Thomas Perry are named in the will of Francis West of Nansemond Co, Va, 1715. She m Abram Hill of said County, and they moved to N. C. They sold to John Perry of Bertie Co, 100a, 1756, and to Josiah Granbery land in same Co, which is now situated in Hertford Co. Several of the children of Phillip Perry moved to Perq, as did also some of his brothers.

His gr-son Phillip died in Perq 1751, and names in his will, sons: Jesse, & Phillip, brothers John, Joseph & Jacob. He left to son Jesse "land on Little River" and to Phillip "plantation whereon I now live." dau's: Sarah, Mary, Rachel, Jude, Elizabeth, and Miriam. Jacob (son of Jacob) is made Exor. Witnessed by Benjamin, & Elizabeth Perry.

Jacob Perry Sr (s of Benjamin, & Susan) was brother of Benjamin Perry II. Died 1790, will probated July of said year. He names wife Mary, sons: Miles, Lawrence and Benjamin, Dau's: Hephsebeth, Sarah, & Mary Perry, Maria Bunch, and gr-dau Priscilla Perry (d of Leah). Test: Jacob, & Jos. Riddick, Benj Perry.

Thelma, the question you asked John Bruno about Thomas Dent. He died in Carroll County Mississippi before August 1844. His will was probated in the August term 1844 of the Probate court on page 44. The final settlement list all of his heirs and a Nancy Beall wife of Josiah Beall is listed but her initial seems to be T. I will send you copies of both the will and the final settlement. I only have a guess as to who Russel G. Beall's brother or sisters are but would be very interested in exchanging FG sheets. The will and settlement papers will give you the brothers and sisters of Chloe S. Dent, as well as the children of some of the other children who are dead at the time of Thomas's death.

Peri - I wrote you another note, but I think something happened with it. I am new on Prodigy and am still learning how to do things. I met a man at the Archives Saturday while I was looking at Randolph County books and he wanted to know who I was looking for and I told him "Perry family".

His name is Earl M. Perry, 110 Jordan View Drive, Titus, Alabama 36089, telephone (205) 567-7234 and he told me he has written about two or three books on the Perry family of Randolph County. I told him you were looking for your family of Perrys and if I could have you contact him, which was fine. So, maybe you have a distant relative you can write to. There is also a publication out on the Perry Editor, The Bean Staff, 1506 Pine Gap, Houston, TX 77090.

She had placed a card in the surname file, which I will place your name in also. R. B. Griffin, Route 3, Box 152, Linsville, AL 36266, telephone (205) 554-2440 is looking for Nicholas Perry from Meriwether County, GA and in Alabama, Chambers and Clay Counties. In 1820 there was a William Perry listed in Limestone County (a long way from the GA line). I have not checked Randolph County as of yet, for after I talked to Mr. Perry, I thought he would be your best bet. If not, let me know and I will look.

Have you found anything on Marion, Matilda, Columbus
Alsabrooks? Am real curious as to where they lived, etc.
I hope you have good luck with Mr. Perry.

PASCAGOULA CHRONICLE

Society Notes

Mr. H. V. Perry came to Pascagoula last week and moved the household belongings to Columbus, Miss., where he has been engaged in business for the past several months. It is with general regret expressed by their many friends who have moved from the circle in which they largely formed a part. Mr. Perry motored his family to Columbus on last Wednesday, where they will make their future home.

Mayor and Mrs. F. H. Lewis moved into their beach home on last Monday, where they will spend the summer season. Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Kell, with their family, will share with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis the delights and comforts afforded at the beach, by occupying a part of the Lewis home for several weeks.

On her way from Mobile to Biloxi, where the family are summering, Miss Kitty Shepard stopped off to visit on last Saturday with Miss Kate Denny.

Mr. Lyman Denny of New Orleans spent last Sunday with his father and sisters, Judge Wm. Denny and the Misses Denny at their home in River Front Road.

Mr. Butler Waldon of Baton Rouge, La., was the guest for several days during the past week of Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Alley and family at their home in Washington street.

After a visit of one or two days to friends in New Orleans, Miss Hazel Chidsey returned home on last Friday.

Miss Odette Alley, after a stay of ten days at Baton Rouge, returned to her home on last Friday. During the early part of her stay, she attended the festivities incidental to the commencement season of the Louisiana State University. She very unfortunately was taken ill, and for four days prior to her leaving for home, was confined to her room. She, however, reached Pascagoula last Friday, and has been convalescing during the last week, much to the gratification of her numerous friends, she is feeling quite herself once again.

Mrs. Harold Bugge and children, left during the early part of the week to visit with her sister, Mrs. Frank Moore for several weeks at Gulf Talks are traveling in all directions this summer. Pascagoula is receiving its full quota of summer visitors who find all things needed in the way of rest and recreation. With the summer's vigorous heat that is now on, "the water's fine." Seems to carry an invitation for all to come. Trips across the bay seem to be generally the favorite pastime, to land the islands and look out upon the dashing waves with their foamy white caps. "Not a bit cold," every body declares, and were the camera men there, how many scenes could be caught in the many groups of folks having a jolly good time at swimming.

the state's responsibility to safeguard the "sanctity of life," has said he expects the case will go to the New Jersey Supreme Court quickly, perhaps by the end of the year.

The 50-year-old Quinlan's suit asserts that doctors have determined that his daughter has already sustained irreparable brain damage, and he has asked the court specifically to allow him to have the respirator shut off.

Miss Quinlan has been in a coma and connected to the respirator in the intensive care unit at St. Clare's Hospital in Denville since April 25.

Doctors have not been able to determine the cause of her comatose condition, but they have said it may have been brought on by the simultaneous ingestion of alcohol and tranquilizers. Armstrong argued on behalf of the Quinlans that their Roman Catholic faith does not require use of "extraordinary means" to prolong life in hopeless medical cases.

Reagan, in an interview with Time magazine, said the withdrawal of Vice President Nelson A. Rockefeller will neither help nor hurt Ford. Noting Ford controls the party machinery, Reagan said, "If I decide to run, maybe there's a little David and Goliath to this thing."

Ford, who appeared on the 28th anniversary program of NBC's "Meet the Press," acknowledged for the first time that "a growing tension" within his administration led to last week's decision to fire Secretary of Defense James R. Schlesinger.

The President made the statement just minutes after declaring he had given "the simple truth" at last Monday's news conference when he denied that the change was prompted by policy or personal differences between Schlesinger and Secretary of State

Henry A. Kissinger.

Jackson. Jamie Han

The youngster is the grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. G.J. Brook of Helena and Mr. and Frank Hamilton of Movella.

The disease was diagnosed Thursday night by a Pascagoula pediatrician and Jamie transferred to the Jackson hospital Friday. Chemotherapy was begun Monday.

Jamie needs blood to sustain the disease-fighting platelets that chemotherapy destroys; the supply needs constant replenishing. The need for platelets is even more critical for Jamie's form of leukemia because the disease has left blood without clotting factors that the result is a condition similar to hemophilia, according to the Mississippi Blood Bank.

A blood drive for Jamie will be held Friday 2-7 p.m. in the Agricultural Baptist Church. All blood that will help him since it is only platelets in the whole blood will be used. If he needs transfusions or bone marrow there is at least one relative who has the same blood type negative.

Another blood drive for the youngster will be held 2-6 p.m. Nov. 2 at the LaFont Inn where his mother worked for years.

Both blood collections will be conducted by the Mississippi Blood Bank.

The prognosis for Jamie is a bright one but family members say they are praying advanced leukemia research and treatment will improve the picture.

Jamie needs blood for his battle against the T-cell leukemia. His parents need money to fight for the battle. They have no insurance.

An account has been set up with Merchants and Marine Bank. Donations may be made at any branch of the bank. Checks should be made payable to Jamie Daniel Hamilton.
